

600MINUTES EXECUTIVE FINANCE

The worldwide COVID-19 pandemic has pushed the CFO to the forefront of the company. Liquidity has never been more critical, and CFOs have a twofold challenge: balancing strategic actions to sustain or repair the organization's finances while assuring the execution of day-to-day operations in a dynamic and volatile environment. The importance of reforecasting and adaptability cannot be overstated. Complete digitization has become a need. Leadership is essential.

Join OneStream in Switzerland for the forthcoming 600Minutes Executive Finance event, where once again bring together finance experts and decision makers to discuss and debate the game plan for CFOs in 2021. Learn from the best in the business and become the financial leader your company requires. This June 2021, in addition to a spectacular schedule, don't miss our tailored 1-to-1 virtual sessions with carefully selected suppliers to find the correct solutions for your company needs!

Why Should You Attend?

Through OneStream virtual events, you may re-establish your ties and stay connected to the business community. Maintain your competitive edge with thought-provoking keynotes, panel discussions, and custom content, and expand your network and find new business prospects with virtual 1-2-1 matchmaking sessions.

Session Highlights:

- INTERVIEW: A cup of coffee with Guy Semmens – Mergers and Acquisitions strategy for finance executives Interview + Q&A
- How to use Business Intelligence to revolutionize your company and help your finance staff reach its full potential
- The incredibly dynamic panel discussion- What your CEO wants you to know