

Financial Decision-Makers Outlook October 2021

This analyst report first appeared on the OneStream site

Hanover Research Financial Decision-Makers Outlook October 2021

The Hanover Research Financial Decision-Makers Outlook for October 2021, sponsored by OneStream Software, is based on a survey of 249 finance executives in North America. It highlights how the global pandemic has impacted North American businesses, what financial decision makers' outlook is for the global economy in 2022, their return to the office plans and planned technology investments.

Download the report to learn how the COVID-19 pandemic has impacted organizations, plans for returning to the office, talent management strategies, ESG readiness and other planned technology investments.

Click the here to download the analyst report.