Foundation Series: Dashboard and Reporting

This edition of the OneStream Podcast is part of our Foundation Series and covers Dashboards and Reporting. Peter Fugere is joined by Nick Blades, OneStream VP of North America Services. Together they take a deep dive into what goes into creating dashboards and reports using the OneStream platform. Nick shares tips and best practices he has learned from over eighteen years in the industry. Touching on everything from design to Cube Views, this is a jam-packed episode. After listening, you can find more information on this topic at the ONE Community - Reporting - OneStream Community.
